THE GLASS MENAGERIE

by Pulitzer Prize winning writer Tennessee Williams.

Featuring: Christina Sergeant, Timothy Nga, Paul Hannon, Emilie Oehlers

Directed by Paul Falzon

19th May to 28th May 2006

Hailed by critics as a 'Perennial Masterpiece,' The Glass Menagerie is 20th century playwriting at its finest; skilfully interweaving the tension of a crumbling family unit with the arresting power of dreams.

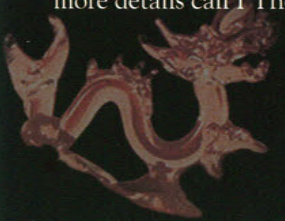

Originally set in the turmoil of Depression Era America; I Theatre vividly re-colours the story to focus on a troubled Eurasian family living in Post War Singapore.

The story revolves around Tom, a frustrated labourer who fights against his family responsibilities whilst writing poetry and dreaming of travelling the world; his dramatic mother Amanda desperately clinging to her privileged past, and crippled, painfully shy sister Laura lost in her collection of glass animals.

When Amanda encourages Tom to set Laura up with a suitable young man, unresolved tensions are forced to the surface, leading to an emotionally charged and unforgettable climax.

MASTERS RE-MASTERED - WORKSHOPS

Intensive Drama Workshops for secondary students offering a rich understanding of the play through interactive exercises and guest appearances by the actors themselves. Through this programme, I Theatre shares its passion for such classic works with students and theatre lovers, re-igniting flames of interest in stories with universal relevance and timeless appeal.
